To the Reader.

THe Attempts in this kind (by the Sales of Dr. Seaman's and Mr. Kidner's Libraries) having given great content and satisfaction to the Gentlemen who were the Buyers, and no discouragement to the Sellers, hath encouraged the making this tryal by exposing (to Auction or Sale) the Library of Mr. William Greenbil, in hopes of receiving such Encouragement from the Learned, as may prevent the stifling of this manner of Sale, the benefit (if rightly considered) being equally balanced between Buyer and Seller; The Conditions and manner of proceeding follow.

1. That having this Catalogue of Books and their Editions under their several Heads and Numbers, it will be more easie for any person of Quality, Gentlemen or others, to depute any one to buy such Book or Books for them as they shall desire, if their occasions will not permit them to be present at the Auction themselves.

2. That he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any manifest difference shall arise, that then the same Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed again to Sale, and the highest Bidder to have the same.

A 2

3. That

To the Reader.

3. That all the Books according to the Catalogue are (for so much as we know) perfect ; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his choice of taking or leaving such imperfect Book or Books.

4. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the Turks-Head in Breadstreet, where upon payment thereof the Book or Books shall be ready to be delivered within the month aforesaid.

5. The Auction will begin at the Sign of the Turks-Head in Breadstreet, the 18th day of February next, punctually at nine of the Clock in the morning, and two in the Afternoon, and this to continue daily until all the Books be sold ; whereupon it is desired, that the Gentlemen, or those deputed by them, may be there at the hours appointed, lest they should miss the opportunity of buying those Books, which either themselves or their friends desire.

Lastly, If any Gentleman have a desire to view or to see any, or all of these Books in this Catalogue, or to satisfy themselves in the Condition or Edition of any of them, they shall be very welcome to the aforesaid at any time before the day that the Sale begins.
